1. It was the beginning of my profession as a nurse. I worked in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) of neurology ward. As a young professional, I wished to save the world. I was excited to see patients making quick recoveries from devastating accidents, yet I was pained to nurse those who were struck with acute neurological disorder.

بحیثیت نرس یہ میرے پیشے کی ابتداء تھی۔ میں اعصابی وارڈ کے شعبے میں کام کرتی تھی۔ ایک نوجوان پیشہ ور کی حیثیت سے میں نے دنیا کو بچانے کی خواہش ظاہر کی۔ مریضوں کو تباہ کن حادثات سے جلدی صحت یاب ہوتا دیکھ کر خوش ہوتی تھی۔ اگرچہ میں اس وقت تکلیف میں مبتلا ہو جاتی تھی جب کوئی مریض بری طرح اعصابی بد نظمی کا شکار ہوتا تھا۔

2. One day, standing at the bedside of a young bus-accident victim, I wondered if she could make the same recovery as others. Hira had received severe head and spinal injuries as she was hit by a speedy bus while crossing a busy road. I took her lifeless arms in my hands and tried to do several exercises on her but in vain. Also, I made her younger sister come and talk to her, thinking that the voice of a near and dear one might activate the nearly dead neurons. She could see but not talk. Her eyes showed certain helplessness. I could read her mind through her eyes. Perhaps she wanted to say, "Please help me."

ایک دن بس کے حادثہ کا شکار ہونے والی ایک نوجوان لڑکی کے پاس حیران کھڑی تھی کہ کیا یہ بھی دوسروں کی طرح صحت یاب ہو سکے گی؟

حرا شدید سر اور ریڑھ کی ہڈی کی چوٹوں میں مبتلا تھی کیونکہ وہ ایک مصروف سڑک پار کرتے ہوئے ایک تیز رفتار بس سے ٹکرائی تھی۔ میں نے اپنے ہاتھوں میں اس کے بے جان بازو اٹھائے اور مختلف ورزشیں کرانے کی کوشش کی لیکن بیکار ثابت ہوئیں۔ اس کے علاوہ، میں نے اس کی چھوٹی بہن کو بلایا کہ وہ اس سے بات کرنے آئے، یہ سوچ کر کہ اس کی نزدیکی اور پیاری آواز اس کے تقریباً مردہ ہونے والے اعصاب کو حرکت میں لائے۔ وہ دیکھ سکتی تھی مگر بول نہیں سکتی تھی۔ اس کی آنکھوں میں ایک مخصوص لاچاری دکھائی دیتی تھی۔ میں اس کی آنکھوں سے اس کے دماغ کی کیفیت کو پڑھ سکتی تھی شاید وہ کہنے کی کوشش کر رہی تھی کہ "براہ مہربانی میری مدد کرو"۔

3. A fellow nurse came near me and asked, "Rahila, what are you doing? Fighting a lost battle?" I was shocked at first to hear a colleague making a hopeless comment. Then I replied, "I'm trying to make her brain process her sister's voice. Also, I am doing my best to ensure that her arms and legs get proper exercise. This might help her walk like a normal person." Meanwhile, a senior doctor on duty walked in. He gave me an ironic smile and said, "If you spend most of your duty hours on one patient, we will have to recruit more nurses to attend to other patients."

Please go and see other patients. We do not have much hope for her. I don't think that she can ever walk again".

ایک ساتھی نرس میرے پاس آئی اور پوچھا، راحیلہ کیا کر رہی ہو؟ تم ایک ہاری ہوئی جنگ لڑ رہی ہو پہلے تو مجھے اپنے سنا تھی کہ امید تبصرہ سن کر بڑا صدمہ ہوا۔ پھر میں نے جواب دیا کہ میں اس کے دماغ کو اس کی بہن کی آواز سے رواں کرنے کی کوشش کر رہی ہوں۔ میں اس بات کو بھی یقینی بنانے کی پوری کوشش کر رہی ہوں کہ اس کے بازو اور ٹانگوں کو مکمل ورزش کراؤں، جس سے یہ ایک عام انسان کی طرح چلنے میں مدد کر سکے۔ اسی دوران ڈیوٹی پر ایک سینئر ڈاکٹر اندر آیا اور انہوں نے ایک مضبوط مسکرہٹ کے ساتھ مجھے دیکھتے ہوئے کہا "اگر آپ ڈیوٹی کے دوران ایک مریض کو اتنا وقت دیں گی تو پھر ہمیں دوسرے مریضوں کی دیکھ بھال کے لیے اور نرسیں بھرتی کرنا پڑیں گی۔ براہ مہربانی جاؤ اور دوسرے مریضوں کو دیکھو۔ ہمیں اس کی طرف سے کوئی زیادہ امید نہیں۔" میرا خیال یہ کبھی دوبارہ چل سکے۔

4. I was upset. The advice to leave the patient unattended did not seem right. I knew that she had suffered from major neural damage, but she needed to be given a chance. An inner voice somewhere within me spoke, "Try once for her."

میں پریشان ہو گئی تھی۔ مریض کو بغیر توجہ کے چھوڑ جانے کی نصیحت مناسب نہیں دکھائی دے رہی تھی۔ میں جانتی تھی کہ وہ ایک اعصابی دباؤ کا شکار ہے لیکن اس کو ایک اور موقع دینے کی ضرورت ہے۔ میرے اندر سے ایک آواز آرہی تھی "اس کے لیے ایک اور کوشش کرو۔"

5. I went to the senior nurse and told her that I wanted to help this patient and work with her more closely. The senior nurse looked at me with utter surprise and remarked that she had orders from the doctor in-charge to shift her to the general ward. The doctors thought that she was a hopeless case and the bed must be spared for other patients. I was shocked to hear this.

The patient's family also requested me to help them fight the case. Something needed to be done. I could not leave my patient fighting a lost battle on her own. I made up my mind to risk my career and help the patient. I requested the senior doctors to allow me to attend to this young helpless patient. Somehow, I was able to make the patient stay in the ICU.

میں سینئر نرس کے پاس گئی اور اس کو بتایا کہ میں اس مریض کی مدد اور اس کے ساتھ زیادہ مل کر کام کرنا چاہتی ہوں۔ سینئر نرس نے بالکل حیرت سے میری طرف دیکھا اور کہا کہ مجھے انچارج ڈاکٹر کی طرف سے احکامات ہیں کہ اس کو جنرل وارڈ میں شفٹ کر دیا جائے۔ ڈاکٹروں کا یہ خیال تھا کہ وہ ایک ناامید مریض تھی اور بستر کو دوسرے مریضوں کے لئے خالی چھوڑا جائے۔ میں یہ سن کر چونک گئی۔ مریض کے خاندان نے بھی مجھ سے اس معاملے کو سلجھانے کے لیے مدد کی درخواست کی۔ کچھ نہ کچھ کرنے کی ضرورت ہے۔ میں اپنے مریض کو اس کی ہاری ہوئی جنگ میں تنہا لڑتے نہیں چھوڑ سکتی۔ میں نے ارادہ کر لیا کہ اپنے مستقبل کو خطرے میں ڈال کر مریض کی مدد کی جائے۔ میں نے سینئر ڈاکٹروں سے درخواست کی کہ مجھے اس نوجوان لاپچار مریض پر توجہ دینے کی اجازت دی جائے۔ کسی نہ کسی طرح میں اس مریض کو شعبہ انتہائی نگہداشت میں رکھنے کے قابل ہو گئی۔

6. I continued to work on Hira. But she was not making much recovery. I felt as helpless as her to see her lie on bed in a miserable state. Could I be able to justify my stance before the senior doctors? I did not lose hope. I continued to work with patience and kept doing exercises with her. Gradually, I could see her making a small recovery. One day I was thrilled to see her lift her little finger. All was not lost!

میں نے حیرا کی دیکھ بھال جاری رکھی۔ لیکن وہ زیادہ صحت یاب نہیں ہو رہی تھی۔ میں نے اسے دیکھ کر خود کو اتنا ہی لاچار محسوس کیا جتنا کہ وہ لاچار کی حالت میں بستر پر لیٹی تھی۔ کیا میں سینئر ڈاکٹروں کے سامنے اپنے موقف کا جواز پیش کرنے کے قابل ہو سکتی ہوں؟ میں نے ہمت نہ ہاری۔ میں نے صبر و تحمل کے ساتھ کام جاری رکھا اور اس کے ساتھ ورزشیں بھی جاری رکھیں۔ آہستہ آہستہ میں اس میں معمولی سی بہتری محسوس کر رہی تھی۔ ایک دن اسے اپنی چھوٹی انگلی اٹھاتے ہوئے دیکھ کر مجھے حوصلہ ملا۔ سب کچھ ضائع نہیں ہوا!

7. I was sent on a three months' training course to Karachi. I made all possible attempts to leave my patient in good hands. I returned after three months to see my patient's bed taken up by another. My feet froze to the ground. I did not have the courage to ask, "What happened?"

As I stood near the bed with several questions popping in my mind, I felt a gentle pat on my shoulder.

I turned around to see a young woman, smiling at me.

"Are you looking for your patient?" she said and gave me a big hug.

"Thank you for everything you did! I know you did not allow them to make me lead a crippled life."

مجھے ایک تربیتی کورس کے لئے تین ماہ کے لئے کراچی بھیج دیا گیا۔ میں نے اپنے مریض کو اچھے ہاتھوں میں چھوڑ کر جانے

کی ہر ممکن کوشش کی۔ میں تین ماہ کے بعد اپنے مریض کے بستر کو دیکھنے کے لئے پہنچی جو کہ کسی اور مریض کے پاس تھا۔ میرے پاؤں زمین پر منجمد ہو گئے۔ میں یہ پوچھنے کا حوصلہ نہیں رکھتی تھی کہ "کیا ہوا؟"

اپنے دماغ میں ابھرنے والے بہت سے سوالات کے ساتھ میں جیسے ہی بستر کے پاس کھڑی ہوئی، میں نے اپنے کندھے پر ایک نرم سی تھپکی محسوس کی۔ میں اس نوجوان عورت کو دیکھنے کے لئے پیچھے مڑی، جو مجھ پر مسکرا رہی تھی۔

"کیا آپ اپنے مریض کو دیکھ رہی ہیں؟ اس نے پوچھا اور پیار سے مجھے گلے لگالیا۔

"آپ نے جو کچھ کیا اس کے لئے آپ کا بہت شکریہ!"

8. I stood still, until her family came around with big smiles on their faces. Thanks to Allah, she was my patient, standing and walking on her own feet. I could not recognize her without the machinery and tubes around her body.

میں اب بھی کھڑی تھی، حتیٰ کہ اس کا خاندان میرے ارد گرد مسکراتا ہوئے کھڑا ہو گیا۔ اوہ! اللہ تیرا شکر ہے، وہ میری مریض

تھی جو اپنے پیروں پر کھڑی اور چل رہی تھی۔ اس کے جسم کے ارد گرد مشینری اور ٹیوبوں کے بغیر میں اس کو پہچان نہیں سکی۔

9. She walked on crutches, which she would leave in a few months. I was so glad that I had done those exercises on her to keep her limbs in motion. I was glad that my efforts bore fruit. But most of all, I was happy that Allah Almighty had helped me win a lost battle.

وہ میساکھیوں کے سہارے چل رہی تھی، جنہیں وہ کچھ مہینوں میں چھوڑ دے گی۔ مجھے بہت خوشی ہے کہ میں نے اس کو بہت سی ورزشیں کرائیں اس کے اعضاء کو حرکت میں رکھنے کے لیے۔ مجھے خوشی ہے کہ میری کوششیں بار آور ثابت ہوئیں۔ لیکن سب سے زیادہ، میں خوش ہوں کہ اللہ تعالیٰ نے مجھے ایک ہاری ہوئی جنگ جیتنے میں میری مدد کی تھی۔

10. She and her family had entered into a considerable bond of friendship with me. I was humbled by their sense of gratitude towards me. I felt a sense of renewed strength in me. 'Where there is a will there is a way' I was proud to be a nurse.

وہ اور اس کے خاندان والے میرے ساتھ کافی قریبی دوستی کے رشتے میں بندھ گئے تھے۔ میں ان کے شکر گزار ہونے پر بہت عاجزی محسوس کر رہی تھی۔ میں نے اپنے آپ میں نئے سرے سے طاقت کے احساس کو محسوس کیا ہے۔ "ہمت مرداں مدد خدا" مجھے ایک نرس ہونے پر فخر تھا۔

Oral Activity:

Form groups and discuss the following points.

a. How important is the nursing profession?

Ans. Nursing is a healthcare profession focused on the care of individuals, families, and communities so they may attain, maintain, or recover optimal health and quality of life from conception to death. Nurses work in a wide variety of specialties where they may work independently or as part of a team to assess, plan, implement, and evaluate care.

b. Is the profession of nursing valued in Pakistan?

Ans. Nursing is a major component of Pakistan's health-care system. The topic has been the subject of extensive historical studies, is as of 2009 a major issue in that country, and has been the subject of much scholarly discussion amongst academics and practitioners in 2009, Pakistan's government stated its intent to improve the country's nursing care.

Nursing is a health-care profession which is mainly aimed on the care of families and individuals. Nursing is important in every part of the world, but in developing countries like Pakistan, the subject of nursing care has provided special focus and attention on the health sector by nursing care. Nurses are also encouraged to gain certification in a specialized area so as to give their nursing careers a proper dimension.

Comprehension:

A. Answer the following questions.

1. Why did the nurse ask Hira's sister to come and talk to her?

Ans. The nurse asks Hira's sister to come and talk to her, thinking that the voice of a near and dear one might activate the nearly dead neurons.

2. Why did the nurse disagree with the doctor's point of view?

Ans. The nurse was not agreeing with the doctor's point of view because she thinks that it was an unwise to leave a patient unattended. Life is very precious; a chance should be give to a patient. She thought that her full attention could make her patient recover.

3. Why did the nurse ask herself the question: "Was it worthwhile to oppose and fight the decision of senior and more qualified surgeons?"

Ans. The patient was a hopeless case in the eyes of the surgeons and they wanted to get the bed cleared for the other patients. The nurse requests the senior doctors to let her stay in the I.C.U and allow her to attend to the patient. Her request was conceded to. She asked this question to reconsider her judgment about the patient.

4. Describe some qualities of the personality of the nurse in the story.

Ans. She was wise, devoted, sincere, honest, kind hearted, and ambitious. She had positive thinking and strong will power.

5. Why did the nurse say: "Where there is a will there is a way"?

Ans. She said so because she proved it practically that a hopeless patient could be cured if you are willing to fight a lost war. If there is no will there is no way. With strong will power a man can also accomplish impossible tasks.

For The Teacher:

C. Rewrite paragraph 3 of the lesson into Indirect Speech.

A fellow nurse came near me and asked, "Rahila, what are you doing? Fighting a lost battle?" I was shocked at first to hear a colleague making a hopeless comment. Then I replied, "I'm trying to make her brain process her sister's voice. Also, I am doing my best to ensure that her arms and legs get proper exercise. This might help her walk like a normal person." Meanwhile, a senior doctor on duty walked in. He gave me an ironic smile and said, "If you spend most of your duty hours on one patient, then we will have to recruit more nurses to attend to other patients. Please go and see other patients. We do not have much hope for her. I don't think that she can ever walk again"

Ans.

A fellow nurse came near me and asked what I was doing. She said that I was fighting a lost battle. I was shocked at first to hear a colleague making a hopeless comment. Then I replied, I was trying to make her brain process her sister's voice. Also, I was doing my best to ensure that her arms and legs get proper exercise. That might helped her and walk like a normal person. Meanwhile, a senior doctor on duty walked in. He gave me an ironic smile and told me if you spend most of my duty hours on one patient they would have to recruit more nurses to attend other patients. He requested me that I should go and see other patients. They do not have much hope for her. He did not think that she could ever walk again".

Nursing is an underrated profession in Pakistan. We do not value it the way we value some other professions. The story highlights the importance of nursing profession and how the sincere effort and strong determination of a nurse saves a patient from a near crippling stage. In the beginning of the profession of a young nurse, she worked in the I.C.U of neurology ward of a hospital. Earlier as a young professional, she wished to save the life of every injured person. One day, a young girl accident victim, Hira was brought into the hospital. She had received severe head and spinal injuries. The nurse tried to do several exercises on her lifeless arms but in vain. The patient was a hopeless case in the eyes of senior doctors and they wanted to get the bed cleared for other patients. The nurse requested the senior doctors to let her stay in the I.C.U and allow her to attend the patients. Her request was accepted to. She continued to work with patience and kept doing exercises with her. The sincere efforts and strong determination of the young nurse save the patient from being crippled. She started walking on her own feet due to the tiring efforts of the young nurse.

Why I love Pakistan?

It is quite natural to love one's country. Everybody likes the place where he lives. I love Pakistan because it is my country. Our forefather got this homeland after great sacrifices. They fought for separate homeland and had lost their lives.

I love Pakistan because it is the beautiful country in the world. It has pleasant weather, mighty mountains, ocean, rivers, green fields and historical places. It is my fatherland. My forefather's were born here; they lived, loved and died here. They cultivated its soil and tasted its fruit. It has beautiful sky and lovely sunsets. It has given me food and comforts. It has given me a piece of land, which I can all my own. Pakistan is the home of great warriors, poets, statesmen and artists. Pakistanis are brave, courageous and honest people in the world. They have courage and a faith, which a few people have.

I love Pakistan for its natural resources. I also love Pakistan for the bright future in the community of nations.
